Discover Koriyama

Endless Adventure in Tohoku's Hidden Gem

Koriyama is located in the heart of Fukushima Prefecture, part of Japan's Tohoku Region. With convenient access via expressways and JR Koriyama Station, reaching Koriyama is a breeze whether by car, bus, or shinkansen. It's just 80 minutes from Tokyo Station and 40 minutes from Sendai Station on the shinkansen.

As Tohoku's second-largest economic hub after Sendai, Koriyama offers a variety of shopping malls, restaurants, and hotels to ensure a comfortable and enjoyable stay. Beyond its urban conveniences, Koriyama is surrounded by stunning natural attractions such as Mt. Adatara and Lake Inawashiro. Each season brings its own unique beauty: cherry blossoms in spring, vibrant sunflowers in summer, breathtaking foliage in fall, and snow in winter.

Koriyama takes pride in its abundant water sources, which nurture fresh vegetables, fruits, and locally crafted sake and beer. These ingredients are the foundation of Koriyama's unique culinary experiences, which visitors are encouraged to savor. Additionally, activities like fruit picking and traditional craft workshops provide memorable ways to connect with the local culture.

Experience the harmony of urban convenience and natural beauty in Koriyama. Through thoughtfully curated recommended itineraries, you'll discover the city's lifestyle, culture, and the unforgettable experiences it has to offer.
